WDHB is currently seeking Junior Program Managers for the 2019 global internship program. Paid six-month, full-time positions are available in Denver, Colorado starting in April/May.

We offer...

- An exclusive six-month global Internship working on our tailor-made programs as a full-time junior program manager.
- An opportunity to work with our global team, client base and leading movers-and-shakers.
- A chance to express your creativity by designing inspiring and disruptive global programs.
- An exciting occasion to develop multiple skills in event organization and public speaking.
- A thrilling experience of delivering on-site programs around the world.
- An immersive training to become proficient in project and experience management.
- The potential to be hired on as a full-time program manager, upon completion of the global internship program.

Ideal candidates are...

- A recent or upcoming graduate in business, international studies, hospitality or similar (Bachelor, Master or MBA level).
- Eager to explore the world's dynamic business ecosystems - on your screen and on-site in different geographies.
- A team player, outgoing, proactive and able to multi task by organizing and prioritizing work to achieve project goals.
- Travel-savvy, digital native, strong intercultural communication skills with a curious and open mindset.
- Solid public speaker & presenter.
- Ideally competent in a foreign language such as French, German or Chinese.
