AN EXCLUSIVE EVENT FOR L&D LEADERS

When and Where Will This Event Take Place?

We've chosen the perfect day to kick off the new year with a bang! Join us on Thursday, January 25, from 1:30 - 5:30pm at the iconic Chase Center. And the excitement doesn't end there — you can stay for the Golden State Warriors vs. Sacramento Kings game starting at 7:00pm.

Who Will Be Attending?

Expect to mingle with senior L&D leaders from various industries, all eager to learn, share and grow. We'll let you in on a little secret - Erin Dangerfield, SVP of People & Culture at the Golden State Warriors will be a part of this event, if you need more of a reason to come.

How Can I Register for this Event?

Registration is a breeze! Head over to our EventBrite page for a seamless registration process. You can pay securely by credit card or request an invoice, if that is your company's preferred method. (PS - Don't miss out on the early bird discount by registering before November 30th)

What Does the $499 Registration Fee Include?

This event not only includes an impactful experiential learning session, but you will also receive a signed copy of Lex's new book, dinner and we're throwing in a ticket to the basketball game since we will be there on a game day!

Will Dinner Be Provided?

Don't worry, we'll take care of your meal at the arena. We'll leave it up to you which eatery you would like to grab food from as they have a wide array of choices.

What Should I Bring?

You don't need to bring anything except yourself! Please keep in mind only bags measuring up to L14" x W6" x H14" will be allowed in the arena, and they will be screened by security prior to entry.

What Should I Wear?

This event involves participating in a low intensity sports experience, so we strongly encourage you to wear comfortable shoes. Also, if you're feeling spirited, feel free to represent your team!
